

CARMEL COLLEGE offers a limited number of free places and scholarships by competitive examination, tenable from September, 1953, to boys aged between 10 and 13½.—For details, write to the Principal, Carmel College, Greenham, Newbury, Berks.

Jewish Chronicle 3 August 1956 p.5

Among the past achievements, Mr. Richtiger mentioned the provision of scholarships and bursaries of the Z.F. for a number of pupils at Carmel College, on whose Board of Directors the Zionist Federation, he said, was represented. It had not been necessary to stipulate that this important boarding school, which catered for 200 pupils and was managed by Rabbi Kopul Rosen, should adopt the educational principles of the Z.F. "These principles were prevalent at the college even prior to the Federation's association with it," he stated.
