IMPORTANT NOTICE

We should like to draw your attention to the following "ruling" which has just been received from the London Beth Din. "The London Beth Din wishes to advise that Limudei Kodeah (Jewish Studies) can only be taught to non-Jewish children (children who are not halachically Jewish) when their application for Geirus has been approved".

This is a binding halachic ruling and must be put into practice straight away.

Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

Following the binding halachic ruling issued by the London Beth Din regarding the teaching of Jewish Studies to non-Jewish children, we are now no longer allowed to teach Jewish Studies to the pupils listed on the attached sheet. Would you therefore, please make the necessary arrangements to implement this ruling.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Rabbi Simons,

Further to our telephone conversations on Sunday last, I think it best to put into writing my message to you. The Chairman of Governors has ruled that, until such time as the Governors acting in concert with the King David Foundation Committee may authorise any change, all pupils who have been members of a Jewish Studies class at the School shall be entitled to remain so and no pupil is to be excluded or discriminated against in any way. Any separation of a pupil, even though he remain in the same room, would be considered as exclusion.

I understand that the matter will be discussed at the next meeting of the King David Foundation Committee, but meanwhile no Jewish Studies class is to be taught other than in accordance with the above ruling. In any case, I shall expect a teacher assigned to a class to remain in charge and control of that class.

Yours sincerely,

Headmaster

██████████, Esq.

Dear Mr. ██████████,

Further to our conversation this morning at 8.45 a.m., we think it best to put into writing our message to you.

After consultations with the NUHT, whilst immediately obeying the ruling of the London Beth Din, we are prepared, until the next meeting of the King David Foundation Committee on the 13th January 1977, to teach Jewish Studies classes which contain non-Jewish pupils in such a way that the change necessitated by this ruling will not be apparent to the pupils.

This letter in no way whatsoever abrogates or changes our letter to you of 29th December, 1976.

Yours sincerely,

I. Simms M. Rothbard S. Kaufman
